Re: Justin Presley vs. Aaron Edward Cook

Dear Justin:

Per our conversation of today, I will continue to hold the funds in trust. If you want to pay the medical lien off, the total is $50,342.54, which should be a cashier's check made payable to Lexington Precision Corp.

I understand that you have contacted another attorney, Robert Rikard, about this matter and that I am not in a position to give you any advice on what you should do due to the actual or apparent conflict. I await your direction on what to do with the trust funds.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Chad A. McGowan
